401

CONTENTS OF VOLUME XXXVIII.

A Contrast Noted, 185.
Address to Graduates—E. E. White, 153.
Allegheny Free Library of Mr. A. G. Carnegie, 366.
Arbor Day in Schools—B. G. Northrop, 138.
Arbor Day Programme, 372.
Arbor Day with the Children—E. E. Higbee, 356.
Artificial Ice: Its Manufacture, 61.
Audubon the Naturalist—T. B. Thorpe, 16.
Australian Ballot, The, 442.
Autumn Arbor Day: Lesson in the Schools, 140.
Beautiful Memorial, A—J. S. Kieffer, 360.
Better Seventy Years Young than Forty Old, 63.
Be Warned in Time: Sleep and Cigarette Peril, 62.
Broader Education: Entire Personality of Child, 130.
Bucks County School Directors in Convention, 53.
Centre County Directors, 449.
Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, 246.
Child Life on a New England Farm, 178.
Christian Association, The, 26.
Christmas Festival, 267.
Classic Songs of Spring: Famous Greek Odes, 368.
Coining New Words, 67.
Common Sense in Education: Address of Governor Beaver at Lancaster Co. Institute, 219.
Common Sense in the School Room, 205.
Courtesy at Home—L. C. Moulton, 443.
Cultivation of a Literary Taste, 440.
Conversation, 149.
Death of Dr. E. E. Higbee, 249.
Determined to Succeed, 15.
Directors at Institutes, 69.
Discipline and Kindness: Balance Regarded, 216.
District Supervision—Geo. W. Weiss, 93.
District Superintendency: Genesis of, 463.
District Supervision, Discussion, 96.
Dont's for the Sick Room, 60.
Dr. Franklin Taylor, 421.
Dr. Higbee's Last Paper, 263; Last Report, 265; Memorial, 266; Memorial Fund, 379.
Easter Walk—E. E. Higbee, 409.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT:

July—The McAlisterville School—Purpose of Christian Ethics, 21. The Johnstown Horror: Letter of Co. Supt. Leech, 22. Ready and Waiting: A Word to Our State Normal Schools, 25. The Christian Association, 26. An Address to the Public from Governor Beaver, 27. August—National Association—Soldiers' Orphan Commission—School Directors and The Journal, 64. Aluminum—The State Meeting at Altoona, 65. Coining New Words, 67. Floods and Forests, 68. Directors at Institutes: Our School and School Houses, School Houses and Surroundings, 69. Items from Reports, 72. October—Official Circular: Arbor Day: Friday, October 18th, 146. Our School Arbor Day—Schools in the Flooded Districts: Some Misapprehensions Corrected, 147. Conversation on, 149. New Gymnasium at West Chester Normal School, 151. United States Commissioner of Education: Appointment of Dr. Wm. T. Harris, 151. Address by Dr. E. E White, 153. November—Editorial Notes—The Institutes—Help for Flooded District—Lock Haven School, 184. High School at Erie—School Mottoes—A Contrast Noted, 185. Forestry Congress—Directors in Session, 186. Our Tenth Arbor Day, 187. Other Gymnasiums, 188. Pan-American Congress, 189. December—The County Institute and the Teacher: Associated Effort of Primary Importance in Educational Work, 217 Address of Governor Beaver before Lancaster County Institute: Practical Training Essential in the Schools, 219. At the Boston High School, 222. The Mission of Common School, 223. Institutes in Indiana, 224. Items from Reports, 225. January—Sudden Death of Dr. E. E Higbee, State Superintendent of Public Instruction: A Prince Has Fallen in Israel, 249. Funeral of Dr. Higbee, 251. Funeral Sermon and Tributes of Loving Memory: Sermon by Rev. Dr. Apple, Tributes of Loving Regard by Rev. Drs. Gerhart, Bausman, and Titzel, 252 In Memoriam: God Giveth Sleep (Poem), 260. Under the Great Seal: Proclamation of Governor Beaver, 261. Last Days on Earth: Letters from Supt Brumbaugh, Dr. White, and Dr. Schaeffer, 261. Dr. Higbee's Last Paper: Educational Exposition of 1892, 263. Dr. Higbee's Last Annual Report as Superintendent of Public Instruction, 265. Dr. Higbee Memorial Fund: Friday, January 31st, 1890, 266. "In Simplicity of Truth:" Extracts from Private Letters—Christmas Festival: Tribute to Dr. Higbee by Mr. McCaskey, 267. Items from Reports, 269. April—Arbor Day Proclamation by Governor Beaver: April 11th and May 2d, 374. Editorial Notes—State Superintendent: Appointment of Dr. D. J. Waller, Jr., of Bloomsburg State Normal School, 375. Election of Superintendents: The Law will not Administer Itself: Let Only the Best Men be Chosen, 377. Dr. Higbee Memorial Fund: Circular to Superintendents, 379. Extracts from Letters, 380. Intermortuus, 383. May—Let the Best Men be Elected—Governor Pollock and State Supt. Hickok—Dr. Waller and the School Department, 414. The Pennsylvania Summer School of Methods—Study of Plant Life, 415. Our School System: Steady Growth and Development; High Schools and Schools for Manual Training, 416. A Visit to Millersville State Normal School, 419. Dr. Franklin Taylor; Brief Biographical Sketch, 421. Our Eleventh Arbor Day: The Work must be Done for the most part by the Schools—Observance at Lancaster: Address of Rev. Chas. L. Fry: Remarks of Miss L. E. Patridge: Dr. Higbee, Our Arbor Day Superintendent, 422. Duty of School Boards: Publishing Annual Statement, 426. Items from Reports, etc., 427. June—Election of Superintendents—Programme of State Teachers' Association, 454. The New School Year, 456. Our Thirty-Ninth Volume, 457. To the Superintendents, 458. Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, 460. The Summer School of Methods, 461. Genesis of the District Superintendency, 463.

Education and Man Educated—E. E. Higbee, 79.
Election of Superintendents—H. C. Hickok, 377.
Eleventh Arbor Day, 422.
Exhibit of School Work, 451.
False Syntax, 444.
Flag in the School Room, 21.
Floods and Forests, 69.
Forestry Congress, 186.
France in the Lead: Progress in Education, 207.
Freedom of Thought vs. Prejudice, Bigotry, 48.
Funeral of Dr. Higbee, 251.
Gaining Confidence of Children—H. E. Starrett, 46.
Geography, The Study of—J. C. Bryant, 177.
German Gymnasia; Growth and Results, 15.
"Get the Worth of Your Money"—J. Wharton, 59.
Golden Rule Book: For the Children, 211
Good English: Practical Suggestions, 10.
Good Investment: Saving Virtue of Courtesy, 361.
Good Missionary Work: Public Education Society, 6.
Good School Houses, 13.
Governor James Pollock and the Common School System—H. C. Hickock, 397.
Graduation in Public Schools, 439.
Grammatical: "As and Then," 58.
Healing or Hurting Shadows, 445.
Hints and Helps to Teachers, 14.
How Prince Albert Did it: Salutary Discipline, 209.
How to Teach Children Language—M. J. Loudon, 3.
How to Have a Bad School, 450.
Imagination in Formation of Character, 450.
In Memoriam: Supt. Bodenhorn—J. W. Snoke, 105
In Memoriam: "God Giveth Sleep," 260.
Industrial Education—N. C. Schaeffer, 98.
Industrial Training: Criminal Classes, 106.
In Simplicity of Truth, 267.
Institutes in India, 224.
Involuntary Teaching: Unconscious Influences, 402
Items from Reports of Superintendents, 38, 72, 155, 191, 225, 269, 387, 426.
Johnstown, Statements of Eye Witnesses, 22.
Knowledge without Wisdom is Thin, Poor, Meaningless: Dry Rot in Education, etc., 43.
Labor Problem: The Vital Question of the Time, 90.
Lesson from Whitelock's Servant, 407.
Letter Exercises and Subjects, 55.
Literary Department, 74, 158, 195, 229, 272, 393, 429.

AUG 29 1890

12394

MEMORIAL NUMBER—DR. E. E. HIGBEE: Tributes of Loving Memory: Eloquence of Truth, 275—All-pervading Beauty, 277—He Spoke as Never Before—Enthusiastic Educator, 278—Attracted Every Lover of Truth—Constant Inspiration, 279—Manner in Department, 280—Among Classic Poets, 281—Glad to Have Met Him—Infused His Spirit into His Work, 282—Rich Inheritance for Youth—Biographical Sketch, 284—First School in Vermont, 285—Every Kind of Out-door Sport, 287—Work at Mercersburg, 288—Reminiscences, 291—National Convention, 293—Anecdotes of Best Grade—Perennial Spring of Humanity, 294—Golden "Whatevers" of St. Paul—Drapery of Mourning, 295—Revision of Hymn-Book, 296—Awakener of Slumbering Souls, 297—Dr. Arnold at Rugby: Dr. Higbee at Mercersburg, 299—Co-laborers and Companions, 303—Indomitable Energy, 304—A Woman's Tribute, 305—Additional Facts, 306—Preacher of Christianity, 307—Arbor Day—Unique Personality, 311—His Thought into Their Thinking, 312—Normal Schools, 313—Sunniest Face—Thankful to Have Known Him, 314—Awe and Submission—Man of Mark—Affable and Kindly, 315—As Falls the Oak, 316—His Work Survives, 317—Masterful and Pervasive Spirit—Brotherhood of Genius, 318—Those Who Love Learning, 319—Scholarly, not Pedantic, 320—Best Interests of Children—Able Official, Loving Friend, 321—Tree-Planting—Crusade of Slander, 322—Sterling Character, 323—Great and Shining Light—To His Old Teacher, 324—Benefit to System, 325—"What His Method?"—Great Work for Schools, 326—Man, Educator, Preacher, 327—Sacrifice of Life, 330—Service at Mercersburg, 331—Best All-round Scholar, 332—Memorial Day at Lancaster, 333—First Skates, Jack-knife, Homer, 336—Heart, Head, Hand, 337—Manhood Immortal, 338—School Board of Lancaster, 339—Soldiers' Orphan Commission, 340—Memorial Circular, 341—Extracts from Letters, 343—"Auf Wiedersehen," 344—Dr. Higbee's Hymns and Poems, 345—Love Builds this Monument, 350.

Maria Mitchell, 446.

Mental Arithmetic, 447.

Millersville State Normal School, Visit to, 419.

Mission of Common School, 223.

Methods of Teaching, Basis of—B. A. Hinsdale, 49.

Modern Perplexity: Whether "A Good Time" or "To Serve God," 213.

Modern Teaching, 56.

Moral Education, 441.

Moral Suasion: Cultivating the Conscience, 131.

MUSIC-PAGES—The Old Oaken Bucket, 42; Over the Summer Sea, 76; We'd Better Bide a Wee, 125; Music on the Waves, 162; Good-Night and Softly Now the Light of Day, 198; The Glad Bells All Say, 232; Saviour and Friend, Who is He in Yonder Stall, 266; O'er the Grave Victorious, 308; The Water into Wine, 309; On the Fount of Life Eternal, 352; Brightly: Song of the Spring-Time, 396; Life Let Us Cherish and Vesper Hymn, 432; Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah, and Flag of the Free, 472.

My Father's Memoir: Life Sketch Extraordinary: Letter from Dr. John Brown, of Edinburgh, Scotland, to Dr. John Cairns, 199, 236, 362, 403.

National Aid to Primary Education, 233.

Naturalness, Charm of—M. W. Sutherland, 167.

Noble Purpose: One of Satisfying Joys of Life, 210.

Of Childhood, 12.

OFFICIAL DEPARTMENT—School Legislation: Cities of Third Class—The McAlisterville School: Report of Investigation by Inspector Greer, Statements of Citizens, Complete Vindication of an Excellent School, 28; Text-Book in Physiology—Superintendent Commissioned—Annual County Institutes, 154; List of County Institutes—Superintendent-Commissioned—Permanent Certificates Granted, 193; Arbos Day Circular of State Supt. Waller—Official Notice of Elecr tion of County, City, Borough, and Township Superintendents—To School Directors: Oath of Office of Superintendents—How Objections are Made—Election and Appointment, 384. Normal School Examinations—Trustees of Normal Schools—Superintendents Elected for Ensuing Term, 467.

Open Text-Books in the Hands of the Pupils, 53.

Opportunities and Responsibilities, 142.

Our Public Schools—J. S. Kieffer, 171.

Our School System: High Schools and Schools for Manual Training—H. C. Hickok, 416.

Pan (Poem)—T. J. Chapman, 454.

Pan-American Congress, 189.

Patriotism in the Schools: The Use of Holidays, 209.

Penmanship and Drawing: Training Power, 141.

Pennsylvania Forestry: Chester Co. Association, 18.

Permanent Certificates Granted, 193.

Personal Qualifications of the Teacher, 51.

Philosophy of History—J. W. Eldred, 235.

Photographing the Stars, 439.

Practical Help by Wise Teacher, 57.

Primary Methods: Suggestions for Teachers, 100.

Public Park, A Plea for—J. Max Hark, 180.

Quadri-Centennial Celebration, 1492–1892, 139.

Religious Element in Education—A. Sutherland, 133.

Reminiscence of Dr. Higbee, 444.

Rocks of the Earth: All Lime Made by Animals, 139.

Roman Catholic Congress, The, 215.

Round Table; Brief Statement of Work Done, 212.

Saving Banks in Schools: At Pottsville, 359.

School Arbor Day, 147.

School Principal—G. D. M. Eckels, 108.

School Principal—J. A. Myers, 112.

School Question: Gift of a Good Education, 214.

School Superintendent and His Qualifications, 369.

Science for Children—Jennie Darlington, 168.

Silent Reading: Forming Habit—A. I. Willis, 166.

Some Points from a Director, 20.

Sources of Power, 4.

State Superintendent—Dr. D. J. Waller, Jr., 375.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION—Thirty-Fifth Annual Session—Address of Welcome to the Teachers of the State (E. H. Turner), 77—Responses to Welcome (D. S. Keck, J. M. Berkey, and A. G. C. Smith), 77—Inaugural Address: Education and the Man to be Educated (E. E. Higbee), 79—Training Teacher: Qualifications and Work to be Done (S. M. Row), 82—Training School: Lever to Uplift the Profession (Mrs. T. B. Noss), 85—Training School, General Discussion, by the Association, 87—The Labor Problem. Vital Question of the Time (R. G. Horr), 90—District Supervision: Essential to Success of System (Geo. W. Weiss), 93—Supervision Further Discussed (Supts. Breneman, Collier, Brecht), 96—Industrial Education: Its Educational Value (N. C. Schaeffer), 98—Primary Methods: Practical Suggestions for Teachers (Anna McCormick), 100—Supt. W. B. Bodenhorn: In Memoriam (J. W. Snoke), 105—Industrial Training: The Criminal Classes (R. W. McClaughrey), 106—The School Principal: Qualifications, Powers, etc. (G. D. M. Eckels), 108—The School Principal: His Duties and Responsibilities (J. A. Myers), 112—Vacation of C. S. Teacher, and How to Improve it (D. M. Sensenig), 114—Discussion by Members of the Association, 117—Needed Legislation, Report of Treasurer, Resolutions, Report of Election, President Installed, Exhibit of School Work, List of Members, etc., 119.

Steady Advance in School Work—H. C. Hickok, 163.

Supplementary Reading—J. R. Elfreth, 413.

Tact in Governing: The Test of the Teacher, 138.

Talk of Pupils, 5.

The Teacher a Critic, 448.

Teachers Whom I Know, Representative Types, 108.

Tenth Arbor Day, 187.

The Man and the Brother—T. J. Chapman, 248.

The Reading Taste an Acquired Taste, 409.

The Tale of the Books, What is—D. G. Wylie, 172.

They Cannot Read, 438.

Trials and Triumphs of the Teacher, 353.

The Young Corporal, 11.

Thoughts and Facts for School Arbor Day, 127.

Tongues in Trees—W. W. Bailey, 369.

Training School—Mrs. T. B. Noss, 82.

Training Teachers—S. M. Row, 85.

Ungraded School Work—Kate L. Brown, 105.

U. S. Bureau of Education, 176.

Vocal Music in Public Schools—Eben Tourjee, 242.

Vocation of Common School System, and How to Improve It—D. M. Sensenig, 114.

Wanted—A Capacity—L. V. Shattuck, 12.

What Constitutes Successful Teaching, 176.

What We May See in Words—T. C. Karns, 175.

White Shield League: At West Chester, 208.

Wissahickon of Lancaster—Rev. C. L. Fry, 423.

Worth of an Education—Edw. A. Rand, 145.

Yards and Gardens—H. T. Brooks, 144.